

History of Washington
Park Exhibition
DuSable Museum

2006

Co-sponsor of the “Festival
Of Democracy”
Experimental Station

2007

“The Bronzeville Experience”
Annual South Side bus tours led with Timuel Black and friends, 2007—2018

Co-host of Nobel Peace Prize
Winner Wangari Maathai’s lecture “A Woman Unbowed”
Rockefeller Chapel

Launch of Sustainability Partners
Network

Launch of the Winning Words
Program

Annual CKP
O-Week
Events/Tours begin

Annual CKP
Humanities Day
Presentations begin

“The CKP Remembers 1942-43” documentary on the founding of the Congress of Racial Equality
(CORE), featuring
George Houser, Timuel Black, and Jim Robinson

“Have a Cookie and a Quote, It Only Matters if You Vote!” Voter Registration
Drive and Bus Tour

“Leon Despres at 100” Documentary/Interview with Chicago’s legendary 5th Ward
Alderman

“Mentoring Obama” Discussion with community organizer and Obama mentor Gerald Kellman

“The Life You Can Save”
Lecture by Peter Singer
International House

2008

2009

Washington Park
Tree-in Festival

“The Humanities in Difficult Circumstances” Conference on Darfur, with Earl Shorris and the Clemente Course in the Humanities

Gala Dedication of the Timuel D. Black Edible Arts
Garden with Special Guest Carol Moseley Braun
5710 S. Woodlawn

Sustainability Partners
Network wins 2009
Champion of Sustainability in Communities Award from the Sustainable Endowments Institute

“The Poverty, Promise, and Possibility Initiative” 2010-11 series featuring presentations by Earl Shorris, Charles Payne, Eric Whitaker, Tim
Knowles, Phillip Jackson,
Evelyn Brodtkin, Janette Wilson,
Shaz Rasul, and others

“Race, Class, Environment”
Co-hosted Roundtable with BIG (Blacks in Green) and the Center for the Study of Race, Politics, and Culture
5710 S. Woodlawn

The 2011 Bronzeville Experience
Tour with Timuel Black, with the “Not Dead Yet” Concert featuring
Dave Ramey and Delta Blues
Great Dave “Honeyboy” Edwards, Center for the Study of Race, Politics, and Culture

2010

2011

“Edible Activism” Workshop featuring
Timuel Black and The Neighborhood
Writing Alliance, with WBEZ
5710 S. Woodlawn

Co-host of 2010 Jane Goodall Lecture “Gombe and Beyond: The Next 50 Years”
Rockefeller Chapel

Co-hosted “Toxic U” the 2010 Leon Despres
Memorial Lecture,
featuring Tyrone Hayes
Blackstone Library

“Amplifying Voices—The Politics of Architecture and Space”

2012 CKP Conversation with Theaster Gates and Charles Esche,
Pre-opening Event

Logan Center

2012

Co-hosted the Benton Medal Award
Gala “Timuel Black: Chicago’s South Side as Sacred Ground”

Quadrangle Club

2013

The Winning Words
2015 Conference on Pre-college Philosophy, featuring Keynote
Speaker C.D.C. Reeve

Mandel Hall

2015

2011-12 AKArma Great Conversations from the South Side

Speaker Series, “On Freedom and Education,” featuring lectures by Danielle Allen, Thomas Holt, and Kenneth Warren

CKP’s Winning Words Program wins
American Philosophical Association/
Philosophy Documentation Center 2012
Prize for Excellence and Innovation

“Climate Change: Our Greatest Ethical Challenge” Lecture by Peter Singer
Mandel Hall

2014

“The Life and Legacy of Julian Herman Lewis”
Conference on UChicago’s
First (1917) Black faculty member, featuring family and friends of Dr. Lewis

Logan Center

“The Legacy of MLK”
Annual South Side Dr.
Martin Luther
King, Jr. tours with Timuel
Black, 2015-2019

The Annual Chicago Regional HS
Ethics Bowl begins, in collaboration with IIT and the National HS Ethics Bowl

2016

The Colin Ward Memorial Discussions at “The Beast”
Exhibition by John Preus
Hyde Park Arts Center

“The Annual Timuel D. Black Distinguished Guest Lecture And Jazz Concert Series” featuring Timuel
Black and Special Guests Kenneth Warren, Theaster Gates and Jacqueline Stewart, Rudy Nimocks, and various jazz artists, 2015-17

The Arts Bank, Parkway Ballroom, Room 43

Co-hosted “Chicago’s South Side and the Prison + Neighborhood Arts Project” panel discussion with the Center for the Study of Race, Politics, and Culture, featuring Audrey Petty, Kai Parker, Sarah Ross, and Lasana Kasembe

Semcoop Bookstore

Philosophy Learning and Teaching Organization (PLATO) National Conference on “Social Justice and Pre-college Philosophy: Where Do We Go From Here?”
Gleacher Center

Co-hosted “The Life and Times of Timuel D. Black: A Centenary Symposium” and “Timuel D. Black !00
Centenary Celebration” Birthday Gala events
Logan Center, South Shore Cultural Center

2017

2018

2019

“The MLK Initiative” collaboration with the RainbowPUSH Coalition,
featuring Timuel Black,
Jacqueline Stewart, PNAP’s
Barbara Ransby and Sarah
Ross, Fr. Michael Pfleger, Rev. Jesse Jackson Sr., and Melissa Gilliam, 2017-18

“The Day King Died” conversation with Timuel Black commemorating the 50th anniversary of
Dr. King’s assassination
Rockefeller Chapel

“The Red Summer of 1919” panel discussion, featuring Sherry
Williams, Lorenzo Young, Timuel
Black, Robert Loerzel, and Bill
Tuttle
5710 S. Woodlawn

Edited and published
Timuel Black’s memoir
Sacred Ground

2020

Collaboration with the Timuel Black Education Foundation to establish the Community Solidarity Scholarship at the University of Chicago

2021

Aligned Winning Words with CKP founder Danielle Allen's Educating for American Democracy initiative and developed the Winning Words from the South Side curricular initiative, a Civics, History, and Philosophy curriculum featuring CKP events and partners

the future